Found Forever Homes for Stella, Oreo and Oliver

Ten-year-old Stella knew only one home, built with the love of her lifelong dad. When memory care became his new reality, her world seemed to crumble. But just as the New Year dawned, Bob stepped in, offering Stella not just a roof, but a family, a fresh start, and a chance to rewrite her story.

Ten-year-old Oliver's tail may have been drooping after losing his forever home, but that was before Luba, the super senior pet adopter, swept in! She'd already filled her heart with Honey in 2022, and Oliver immediately fit right in, making it a double dose of furry joy.

Sharon, a senior with a soft spot for felines, sought a rare treasure: a young, male calico. Though the odds were against her, fate intervened in the form of Oreo, a friendly foster cat. Calico or not, their connection was instant, proving that love comes in all shapes and sizes. And so, Oreo found her forever home, filling Sharon's days with purrs and companionship.
